REMEMBRANCES

Dedicated To
AMERICA'S GOLD STAR MOTHERS

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

Leland S. Ellis

PUBLISHED AT BOSTON — MASS

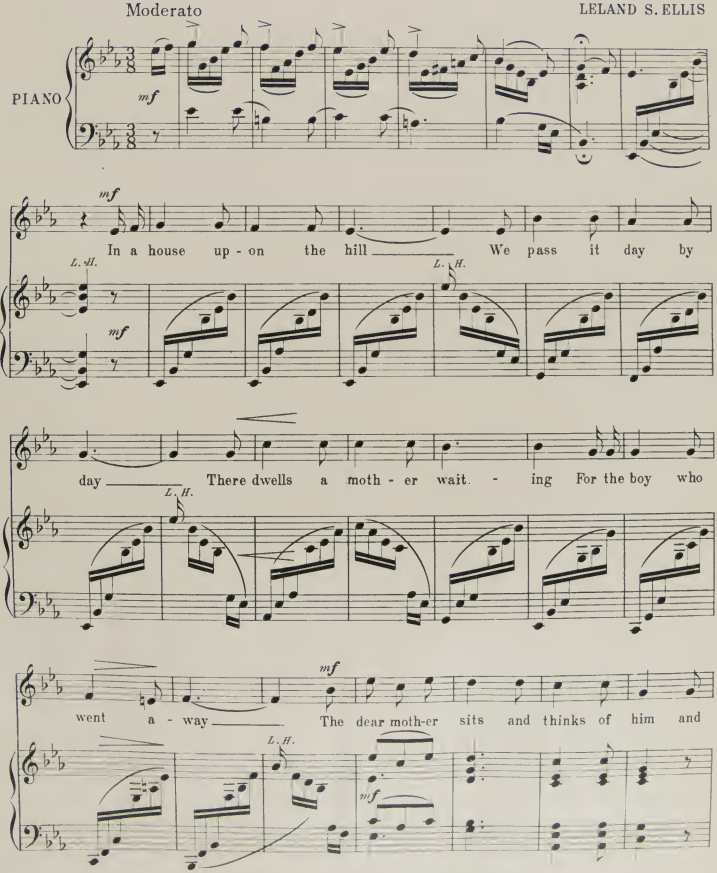
MADE IN U.S.A.

Remembrances

Moderato

LELAND S. ELLIS



PIANO
mf
In a house up - on the hill We pass it day by
L. H. day There dwells a moth - er wait - ing For the boy who went a - way The dear moth-er sits and thinks of him and
mf

Copyright 1923 by Leland S. Ellis and James S. Pearson International Copyright Secured

f days of long a - go — She thinks of him in those stirr - ing days When
f mf
rit.
a tempo
he was bound to go — The boy sailed a - way on a trans - port L. H.
a tempo
rit.
f
accelerando
grey The flag was up - on high — Look up! said he, with L. H.
f
rit. ad lib.
ff
Andante
stead - fast eye, For you dear flag we'll die — L. H.
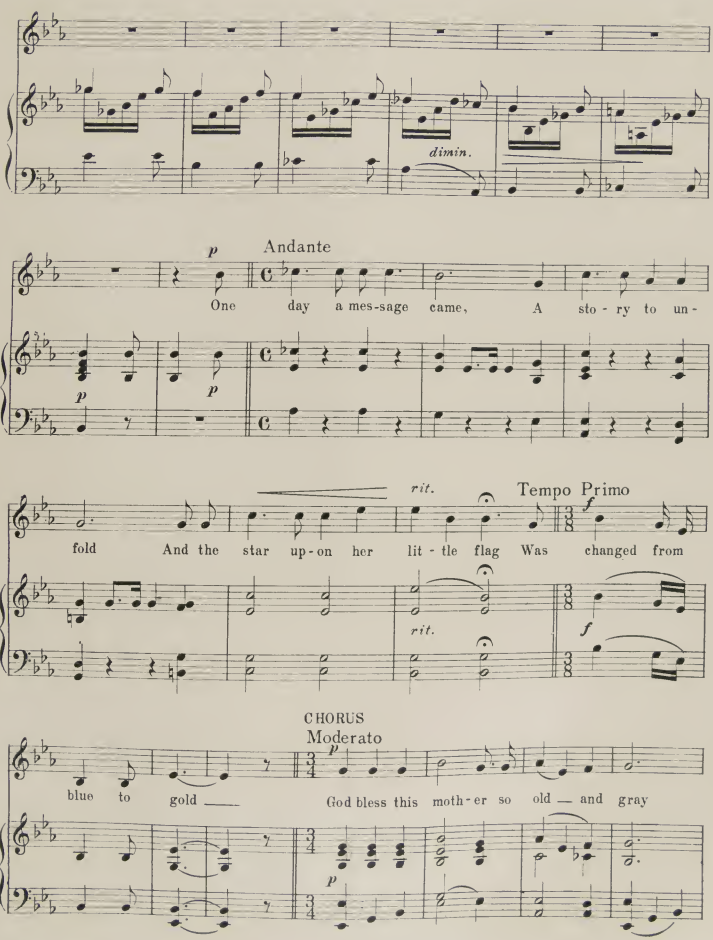
f
ff
f



dimin.
p Andante
One day a mes-sage came, A sto - ry to un -
p
p rit.
Tempo Primo
f
fold And the star up - on her lit - tle flag Was changed from rit.
f
CHORUS
Moderato
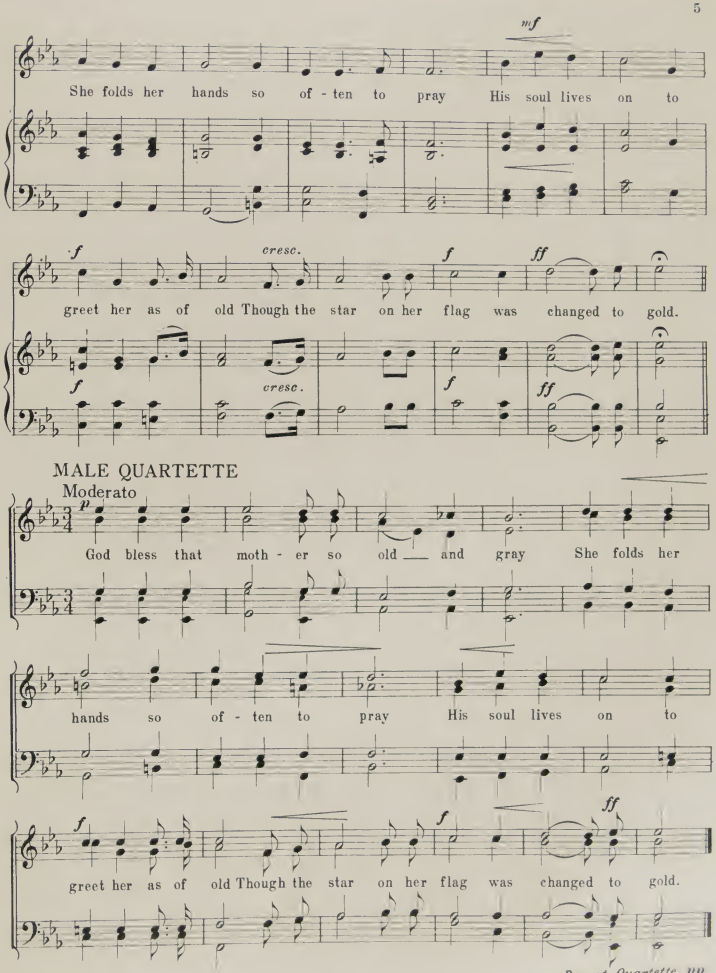
p blue to gold God bless this moth - er so old and gray
p



mf
She folds her hands so of - ten to pray His soul lives on to
f cresc.
f
ff
greet her as of old Though the star on her flag was changed to gold.
f cresc.
f
ff
MALE QUARTETTE
Moderato
p
God bless that moth - er so old — and gray She folds her hands so of - ten to pray His soul lives on to
f
f
ff
greet her as of old Though the star on her flag was changed to gold.
Repeat Quartette pp